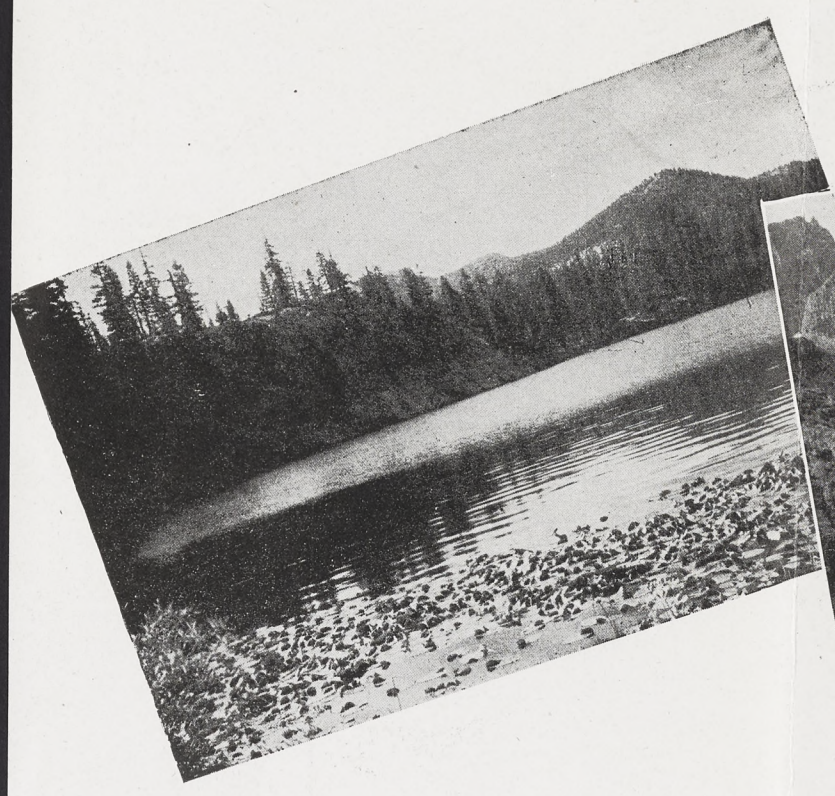
FOR A REAL VACATION

RED'S MEADOW

RESORT AND PACK TRAIN

In The Heart of The Sierras



RED'S MEADOW IS REALLY TOPS

From the moment you leave Highway 395, forty miles north of Bishop, you will shed your mantle of care. Enchanting scenes of primitive grandeur, flavored with invigorating pine-toned air and golden mountain sunshine will give you a new joy of living. The uncrowded and unspoiled livliness of the mountains, lakes and streams will call you irrisistably outdoors.

FUN FOR ALL THE FAMILY

Combine a grand fishing trip with a family vacation everyone will always remember. At RED'S MEADOW all the family may enjoy such pleasures as hiking, horsebacking or motoring the one mile to the Devil's Post Pile—a National Monument, to bubbling hot springs, geysers and dozens of other rich fields for the photograph album . . . climbing snow-covered peaks . . . paddling their own canoe or lazily drifting in a row boat . . . swimming in icy lakes or the San Joaquin River or free bathing in one of the nerve relaxing hot soda spring baths maintained by the U. S. Forest Service . . . or just resting.

FISHING

If you glory in knock-down-drag-out fishing battles . . . come up and wet your line. Within 2½ horseback hours of RED'S MEADOW are 15 lakes and many miles of trout streams where tackle bustin' rainbow, steelhead and golden trout grab your fly in a hurry . . . from then on its every man for himself. Just ask any sportsman who has fished these waters! His description will sound like an Izaak Walton dream . . and, man it's just that!

DEER HUNTING

The deer season opens Sept. 16th, when you are entitled to two deer. So, Hunters, THIS way! This is the deer's natural home and in this region of virgin wilderness—thousands and thousands of acres, also roam bear.

PACKTRAINS AND PACKERS

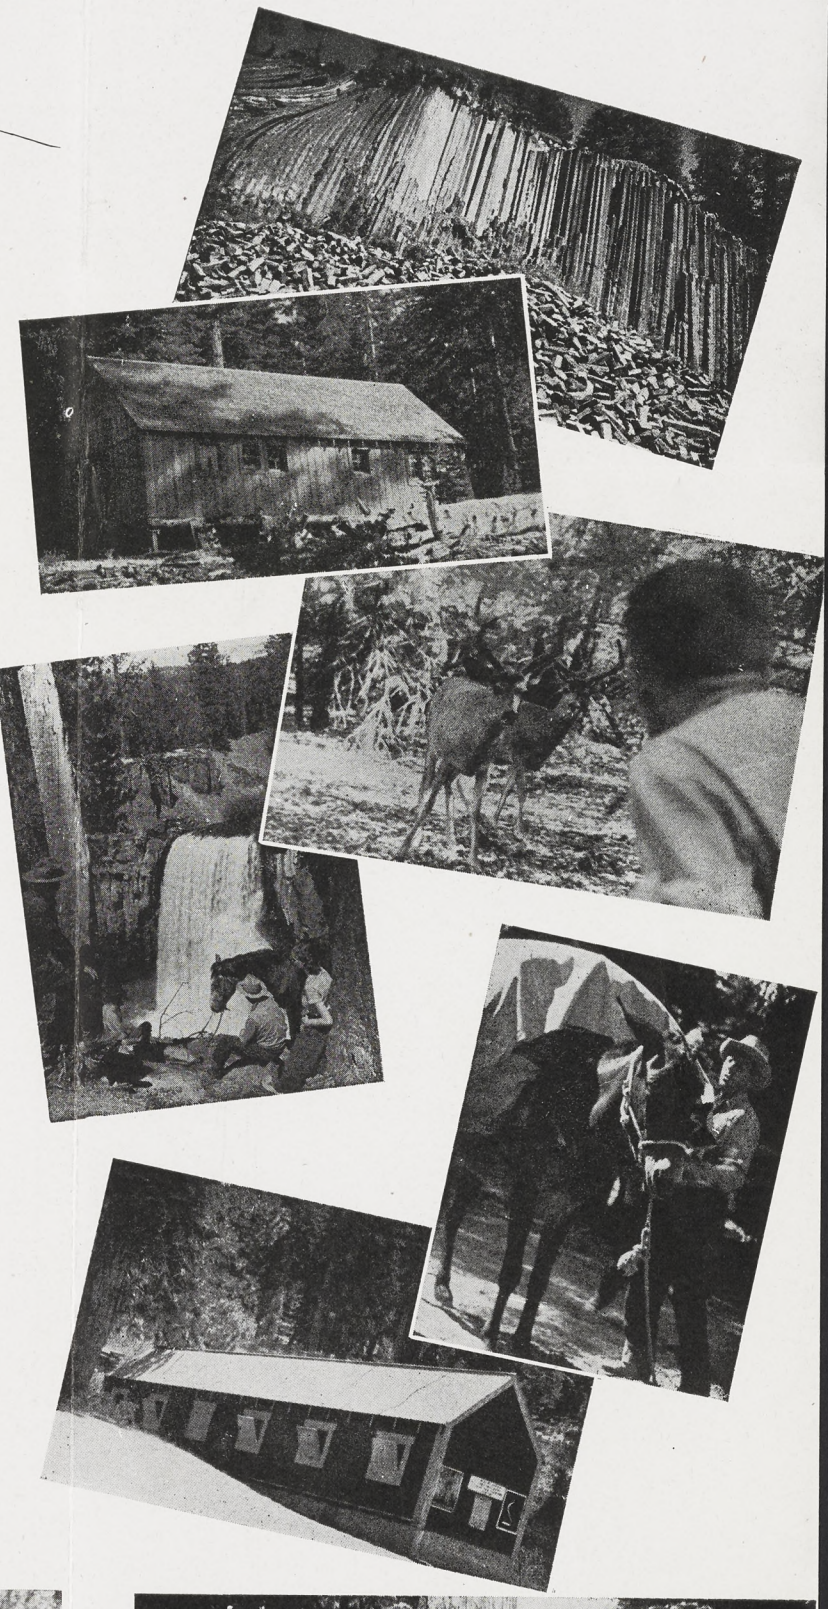
Reliable horses and pack animals and pleasant, competent packers or guides under the direction of Arch Mahan, are available for the hunter and ambitious angler seeking a trout stream that is still as nature made it. RED'S MEADOW also maintains primitive but comfortable back country camps in untouched wilderness. These experienced guides or packers have assembled a fund of vital information about the hot spots and can give you last-minute dope on conditions and prospects. Their help and advice is one of the reasons fishermen come back to RED'S MEADOW year after year, in fact, the one purpose of the packtrain and packer is to make your vacation and outing a lasting memory.

WATER

Sparkling and blue or foamy and turbulant. Within 2½ horseback hours are 15 lakes and many miles of streams . . . teeming with whoppers like these . . . big and hungry and full of fight.

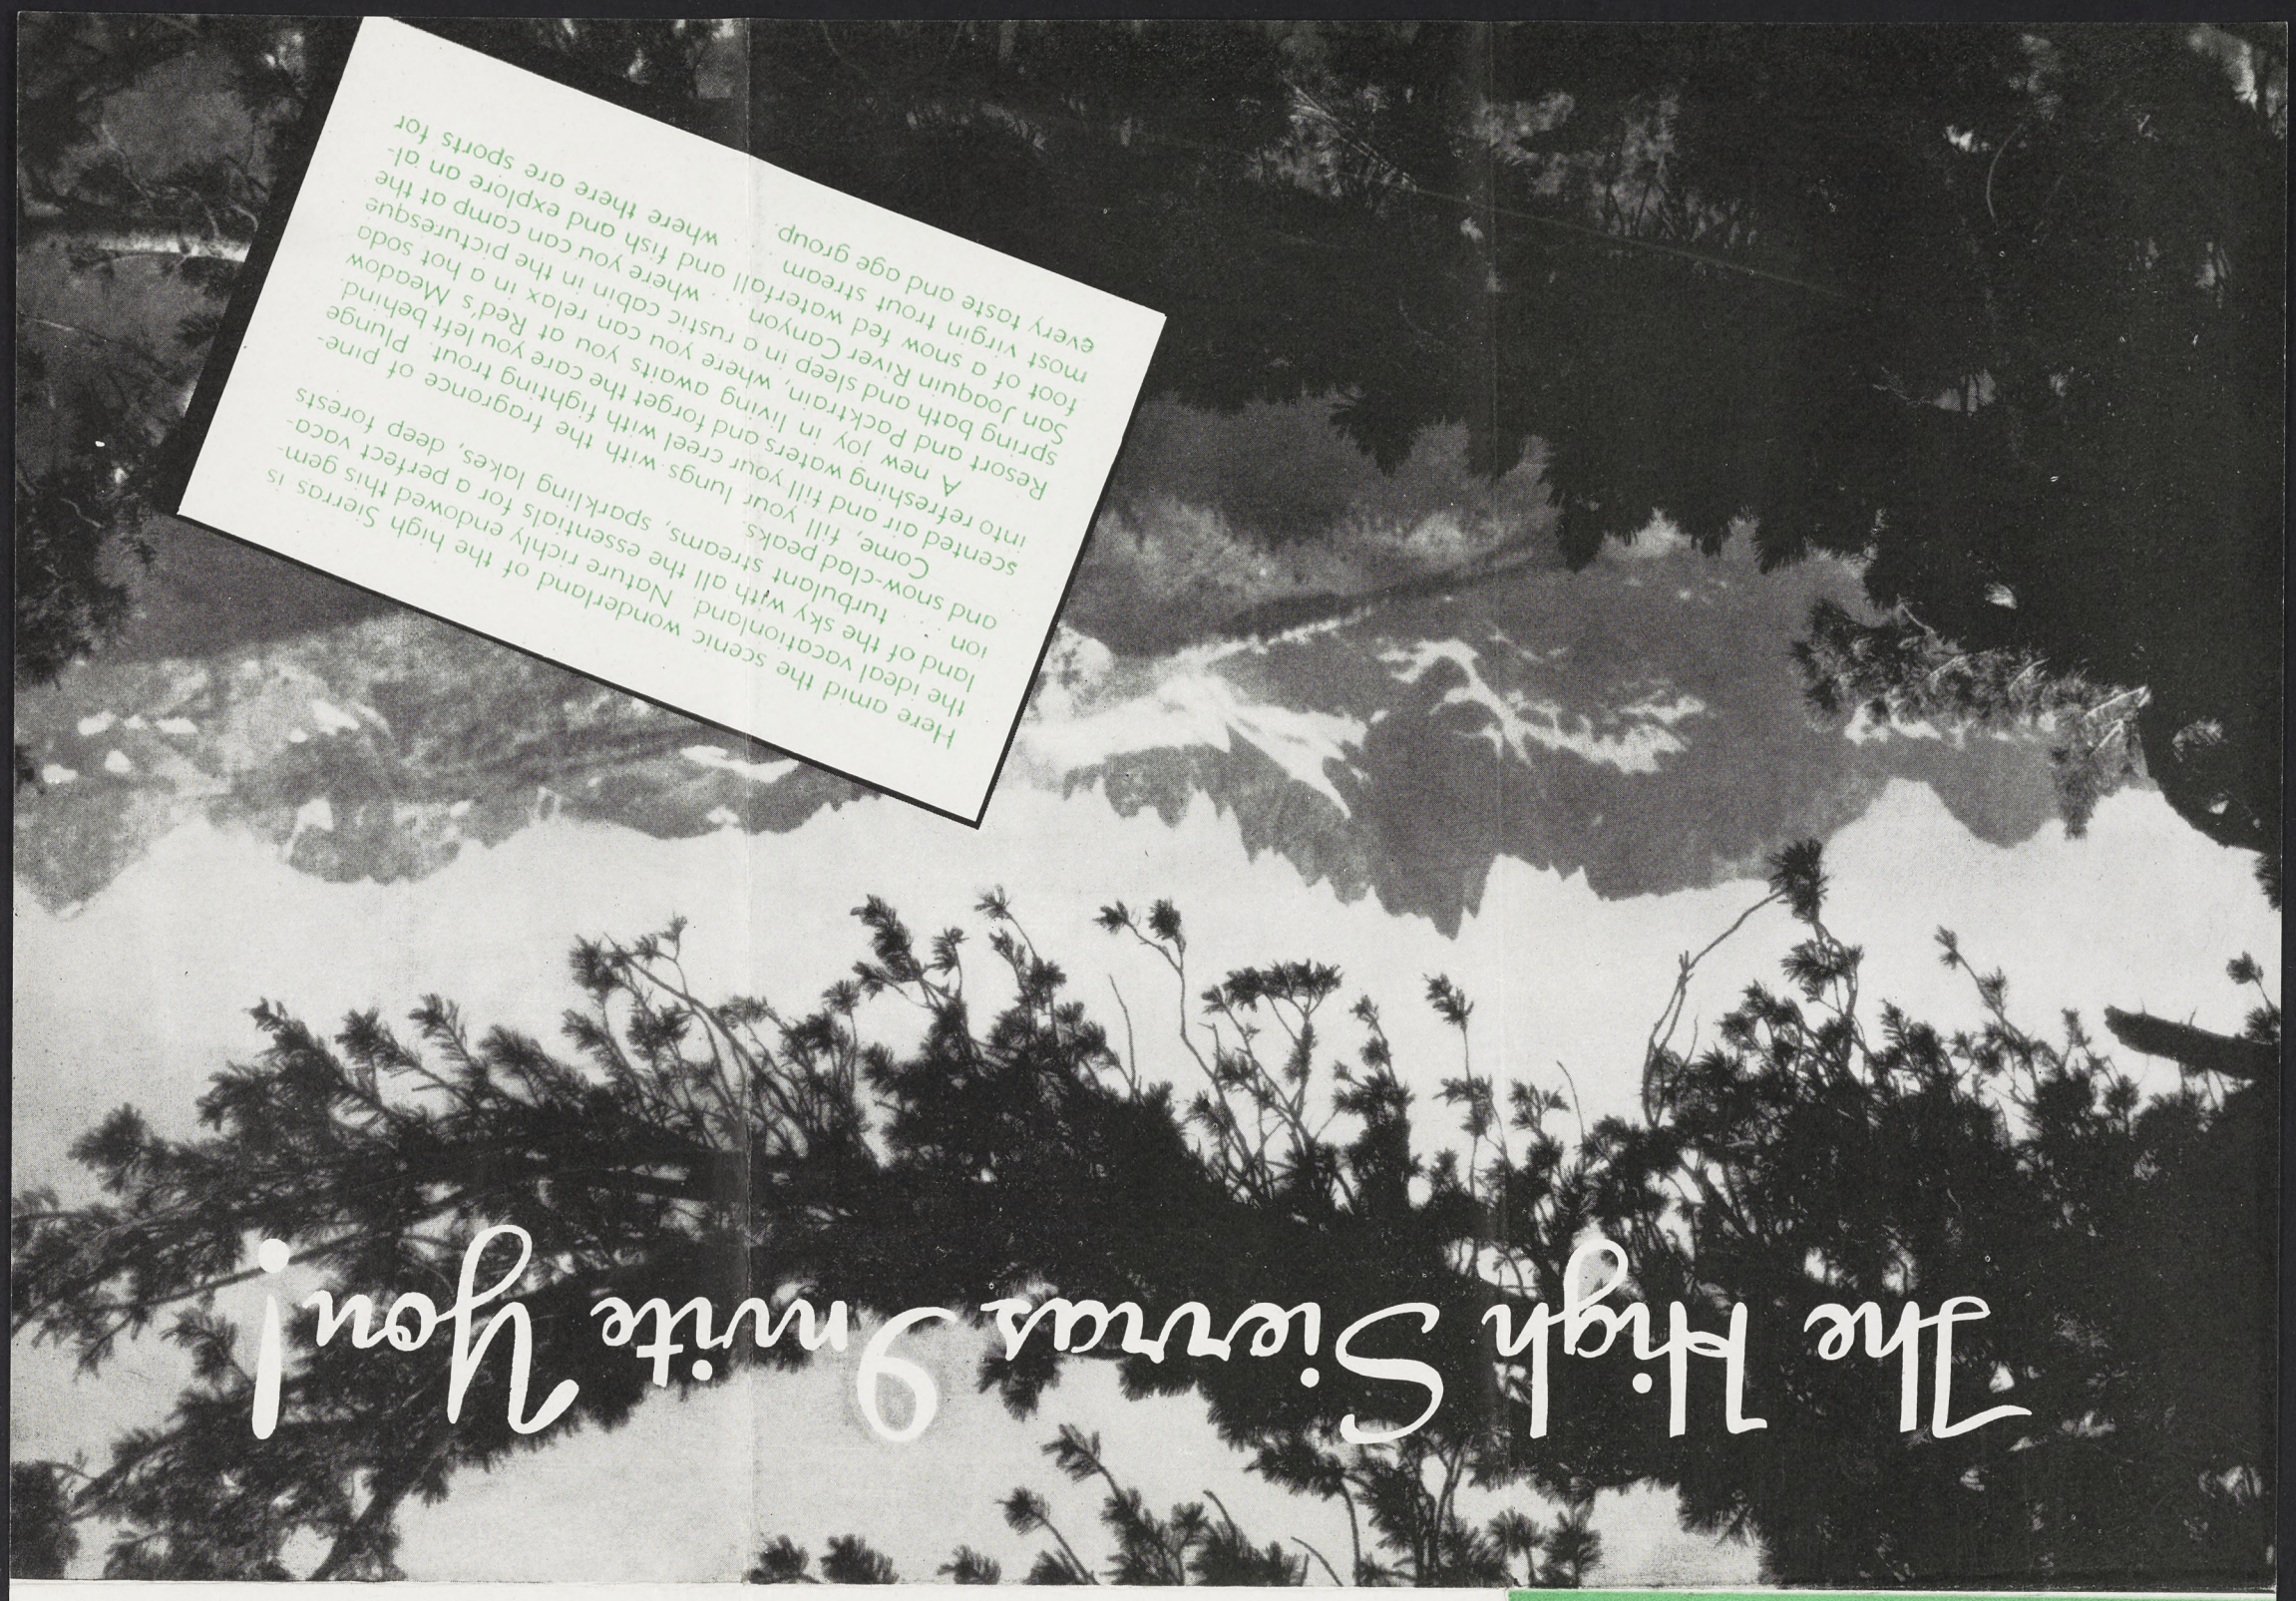
VIEWS

The Devil's Post Pile, a National Monument . . . Bath house for Hot Soda Spring, free to all and maintained by U. S. Forest Service.
Perfect subjects for the camera enthusiast. Never ending scenic views in hiking and horseback distance Back country spots to delight any camper's heart . easily reached by horseback.



Actually it costs no more to live in one of these rustic cabins than it does at home . . . and when the mercury hovers around 100 in the sweltering city, the health giving qualities of cool lakes and unspoiled forests add riches that money can't buy. And you will be as welcome if you bring your own tent and camp in the free, uncrowded scruptiously clean camp grounds, maintained by the Forest Service. Food, supplies and tackle are available, at comparable city prices in the well-stocked MEADOWS store.

Land of Enchanting Panoramas of the Sky



Here amid the scenic wonderland of the high Sierras is the ideal vacationland. Nature richly endowed this land of the sky with all the essentials for a perfect vacation . . . turbulent streams, sparkling lakes, deep forests and snow-clad peaks.

Come, fill your lungs with the fragrance of pine-scented air and fill your creel with fighting trout. Plunge into refreshing waters and forget the care you left behind.

A new joy in living awaits you at Red's Meadow Resort and Packtrain, where you can relax in a hot soda spring bath and sleep in a rustic cabin in the picturesque foot of a snow fed waterfall and explore on all-San Joaquin River Canyon . . . where you can camp at the most virgin trout stream . . . where there are sports for every taste and age group.
